Information for clergy seeking Eucharist Visitor licenses for lay people in their congregations:

1. Clergy requesting licenses should ensure that those licensed in the congregation represent the diversity of the Church, and include women, men, young people (16 years or older) and older persons, as well as persons of different racial and ethnic backgrounds.
2. Licensed lay ministers who are functioning liturgically may vest in either alb and cincture or surplice and cassock, according to parish custom. Persons who read lessons and lead prayers need not vest.
3. Licenses are issued for three years.
4. Those who are in a formal formation programs for the priesthood or vocational diaconate in the Diocese of Virginia are deemed to be licensed under these guidelines.
5. Before a license may be granted, the applicant must complete training in the prevention of sexual misconduct, with a special emphasis on awareness and prevention of elder abuse. A “short course” is offered by the Committee on the Prevention of Sexual Misconduct of the Diocese of Virginia.
