St. David's Episcopal Church and School in Ashburn, VA is hiring a Director of Music who will be responsible for the overall leadership and creative development of the Music program.

- Our church community is a vibrant, multigenerational congregation that enjoys many ministries and events, a beautiful worship space and a welcoming community spirit.
- The music program currently includes a traditional adult choir, contemporary worship band, children's choir and handbell choir.
- This position will be part-time during the pandemic, but may become full-time depending on future needs.

Our ideal candidate

- will be a person of faith, who has a commitment to a broad scope of church music, including both traditional and contemporary worship music
- is familiar with liturgical church practices
- has experience directing traditional choirs
- feels comfortable leading a contemporary worship band
- holds a Bachelor's or Master's degree, and has keyboard and vocal competency
- enjoys working with both professional and volunteer musicians of varying ages and skill levels
- has excellent leadership, organizational and interpersonal skills
- takes on administrative duties such as budgeting and worship planning, in collaboration with the Rector and worship team

Salary will be commensurate with education and experience.
