

St. John's Episcopal Church
Director of Music

St. John's Episcopal Church, a parish in the Diocese of Virginia, located in Centreville, VA, is seeking a part-time Director of Music who will maintain the high standard of liturgical music for our Sunday Service and special services throughout the year.

This position will include the duties of both Organist and Choirmaster, and, therefore, the applicant should be proficient in both accompanying and conducting.

Applicants should be familiar with the Episcopal musical and liturgical traditions including plainsong, Anglican chant, and the Hymnal 1982.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Function as the Director of Music
- Provide organ Preludes, Postludes, and accompany hymns and all choral anthems
- Conduct volunteer choir
- Plan Hymns, Service Music, Anthems, and other appropriate musical selections
- Collaborate with Rector
- Maintain the Music Library

Requirements

- At least three years of experience directing choirs
- Experience with the Episcopal liturgy is preferred
- Demonstrate ability as Organist
- Demonstrate ability in directing and teaching choral singing
- Minimum B.M. in Music, Organ, or Choral Conducting Required

Other Opportunities

- The Director of Music has the ability to play all Weddings and Funerals at the church
- Opportunities with St. John's Ministry Partners:
 - including accompanying a weekly Mass for St. Anthony's American National Catholic Church

To apply, please email your resume and cover letter to stjohnscvpriest@gmail.com.

Questions?

Call The Rev. Carol Hancock at 703-803-7500.