I am an active member of St. Paul's, Owens, and have been so since I moved to King George County in 2002. My most recent appointments/elections at St. Paul's have been on the Vestry: I served for two non-concurrent terms; during those terms I served as one and then two years as Senior Warden. I have been involved with the youth at St. Paul's: youth group leader, Sunday School program leader and teacher, and Children's Chapel teacher. I was part of the small team that started the preschool program at St. Paul's thirteen years ago. I continue to serve as a volunteer co-leader of this ministry, and I have served on the Day School's Board since its inception. I have been going to Shrine Mont since I was a child, including as a camper and for annual family vacations, and I helped invigorate St. Paul's return to Shrine Mont for our annual church retreat. Serving in my church, participating in its ministry, is part of who I am. I am a lifelong active Episcopalian, daughter of clergy, and graduate of St. Agnes School. I am a technical writer for a government contractor; effective communication, both oral and written, is one of my skill sets. I currently serve on the Community Foundation of the Rappahannock River Region's Board of Governors. On committees or boards, either at church or in the community, my style is to work to come to solutions through consensus, wherever possible. I look forward to an opportunity to serve the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia.
