Pertinent skills:

I currently serve on the endowment committees of Shenandoah University and the Evans Home for Children. The Bank of Clarke County had a Trust Department and Investment branch that I supervised over the last twenty years. My skill set is more of a "jack of all trades, master of none" in finance, investments, corporate governance and banking.

Why do you wish to serve?

I find the work interesting through the first year on my term. The TOTF is going through an interesting and challenging transition and I believe my broad range of skill sets can help. I have served many different areas of Grace Episcopal Church and I feel like this is an area where I can serve the Diocese.
