I have been ordained since 2013, following a 13-year career in software development project management. I have served both the Diocese of Texas (my ordaining diocese) and the Diocese of Virginia. As a Rector serving Good Shepherd, Burke, for the past four years, I have become increasingly involved in Regional and Diocesan business.

I feel strongly that the next ten years will be pivotal for the Diocese of Virginia, as we discern both the election of a new Bishop Diocesan as well as how to further the mission and ministry of the Church in the coming post-Covid times. I hope to offer to the Diocese of Virginia my gifts of organizational vision, leadership, faithful discernment, and willingness to take on challenges.
