I was baptized and confirmed at Christ Church Millwood, Cunningham Parish, Millwood, Va. where I have remained a member to this day.

I've served on vestries there. Presently, I am Chair of the Education Committee for the Winchester Branch of the NAACP. I have received two local awards: From the Coalition for Racial Unity, the "Walk the Talk" award, and a Freedom Fund Award from the NAACP.

I am a graduate of Princeton University (English and American Civilization (1965). US Navy 1966-1969 (Lt. JG). Graduate of UVA Law School 1972. I have practiced law since then in Clarke County and Winchester area serving as public defender, prosecutor, and state-appointed attorney for land condemnation cases. Presently serving as President of the Clarke County Bar Association.

My mentor at St. Paul's School (Concord, New Hampshire) was John Walker, later Bishop of the Diocese of Washington. I feel called to serve on the Standing Committee at this pivotal time in the life of our diocese. I would like to contribute my experience and commitment in the area of healing across differences, my lifelong commitment to the Episcopal Church, and my legal background toward doing all I can to advance the efforts of our diocese in transforming lives, inside and outside our walls.
