Professional/Educational Background: Attorney at Law, Licensed in Mississippi in 1999 and Virginia in 2001. My primary practice is in Real Estate Transactions. I have done a lot of home repair and maintenance work including restoration of a 100 year old farm house, as well as facilities maintenance at several Coast Guard units throughout my career and at several summer camps.

Church Involvement - Local, Diocesan, National: Twice elected to the Vestry at Emmanuel Harrisonburg, where I served on the Buildings and Grounds Committee and as Junior Warden. I also help maintain the Canterbury House and property in Harrisonburg. When I lived in Mississippi, I was elected to the Board of Trustees for The University of the South.

Pertinent skills you bring to this work: Knowledge of Real Estate Law and transactions as well as maintenance, repair and property management.

Why do you wish to serve? I want to help the Diocese manage it properties.
