

Music Director Position at St. John's Episcopal Church, Richmond

St John's Episcopal Church is an active community of faithful Christians worshipping in a historic and living landmark and doing mission outside its walls. We're looking for a Pastoral Musician to serve as Organist and Choir Director. The ideal candidate is a vocational musician who can help us enhance the growing vitality of the congregation and choir through the gift of music. A background in a liturgical church setting is a plus. We're interested in continuing our expansion of musical offerings as we include a wide array of choral and organ music from multiple periods and genres to foster the joyousness of our community worship experience.

The right candidate will collaborate with the Rector to plan hymns and service music for our 10:30 a.m. service (10:00 a.m. in summer), preparing the enthusiastic and growing choir for weekly and special services, and helping them develop in musical ability. The successful candidate will also help to plan play for special services throughout the year such as the Church Hill Vespers, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, Ash Wednesday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil.

The organ is a restored two manual 1905 Adams Stein Tracker. Our piano is a pre-war Baldwin in perfect condition.

An annual salary of $25,000-$32,000, plus healthcare and pension, is negotiable based on education, experience, and familiarity with the Episcopal liturgical tradition. Compensation includes 4 weeks of paid vacation and a stipend toward continuing education, with additional monies available for materials and paid guest musicians. Funerals and weddings are right of first refusal and paid outside of salary.

To apply please e-mail cover letter, resume, and a minimum of 3 references to pduffy@saintjohnsrichmond.org no later than 1 December 2022.
