Why do you wish to serve?

Because of my continuing opportunities to serve in various capacities both within the Diocese of Virginia, Province III and other Dioceses, I have been honored to work within the Wider Church in numerous places in the United States and in several roles. I continue to learn what our members believe, seek and fear. Supported by this knowledge, I have done my best to serve, guided by the Holy Spirit, as I have participated in a gathering or supported or lead a program. Framing my involvement is my conviction that we best can approach living as God has intended, during our days on this Earth, if we seek to know each other as God knows each of us.
