Pertinent skills you bring to this work: Enthusiasm; dedication; a demonstrated capacity for leadership, supported by a strong work ethic; the ability and willingness to listen, understand, and integrate varied points of view; optimism; and the belief that we are empowered to do all things through faith in the love of God and the gift of his Son for all men and women, everywhere.

Why do you wish to serve? God calls us all to mission and to serve — to spread the good news of Christ, to proclaim his kingdom, to feed the hungry, and cloth the poor. I believe that my service in the parish and in the diocese — particularly on the Standing Committee and the Dayspring Committee, as Lay Deputy First Alternate to the 2009 Triennial, and now as Lay Deputy to the Province 3 Synod — has given me deep insight into the issues facing The Episcopal Church. Ours is a servant ministry and I will humbly and prayerfully serve in any capacity to which God calls me.
